The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, October 8. 1706.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Octob. 1.

Vienna, September 18.

THE 16th Instant Count Wratislaw set out from hence Post for Saxony, with a Commission from the Emperor to the King of Sweden relating to his Invasion of that Electorate. The same Day the Archbishop of Colocza arriv'd at Court from Hungary, with new Propositions from the Malecontents of that Kingdom. Yesterday Morning Count Hartach arriv'd here Post from Piemont, with Letters from the Duke of Savoy and Prince Eugene for the Emperour, notifying the Relief of Turin and the Defeat of the Enemy's Army before that City. The Emperour has settled a Pension of 4000 Florins yearly on General Thaun for his defending Turin till Succours arriv'd.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Octeb. 5.

Vienna, Sept. 22. On Sunday last Te Deum was sung in our Cathedral of St. Stephen for the Victory gain'd before Turin the 7th Instant. Their Imperial Majesties assisted at this Solemnity, which was concluded with a Triple Salvo of the Artillery of our Ramparts, and of the Small Arms of the Imperial Guards. We have confirm'd Advice from Hungary, that General Staremberg has taken the Fort of Gutta on the Waagh, which is a Passage to Neuheusel, and that he has beaten a Party of 1400 Hungarians. The Duke de Moles set out from hence the 18th Instant, to go to King Charles III, in Quality of Ambassadour extraordinary from his Imperial Majesty. Mr. Stepney, Envoy extraordinary from the Queen of England, had an Audience of Leave Yesterday of the Emperour, Empress, and Empress Dowager, and will set out to Morrow for Brussels: The Emperour has presented him with his Picture set in Diamonds.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated October 8.

Vienna, Sept. 25. The Emperor has made Count Illieshasi Chancellor of Hungary. The Archbishop of Colucza is sent back to Hungary, the Court refusing to give Ear to the new Propositions of Peace which he came to offer on the Part of the Malecontents. Count Sinzendorf the Emperor's Envoy with the King of Sweden, having written Word that his Swedish Majesty has declar'd to him he will undertake nothing against his Imperial Majesty or the Empire, Orders are sent to Count Wratislaw who stop'd at Prague, to continue there till the Return of Count Sinzendorf. We receiv'd Advice Yeeerday by an Officer dispatch'd from Coprainitz in Croatia, that the Governour of St. George having pass'd the Murre the 16th of this Month with a Detachmnnt of 1500 Men, surpriz'd the Town of Kopornach, and took the Castle by storm; that of 1000 Men which the Malecontents had in it 700 were put to the Sword; that he pillag'd and burnt the said Town and 5 Villages in the Neighbourhood of it; and that afterwards he return'd to St. George with 1000 Cattle, and a great deal of other Booty, as also 5 Colours taken from the Enemy which he sent hithsr by the said Officer. The 20th Instant Adjutant General Hamilton arriv'd here Post from the Army in Italy, with the Confirmation and Particulars of the Victory gain'd before Turin; for which the Duke of Savoy's Subjects that live in this City caus'd Te Deum to be sung in the Church of San Francisco de Paulo; Count Tarini his Royal Highness's Envoy extraordinary being present: That Count gave a magnificent Entertainment on this Occasion to the Ministers and other Persons of Quality of this Court. Count Trautmansdorf, who is confirm'd in his Embassy to the Swiss Cantons, set out from hence the 21st for that Country; he has also the Caracter of Ambassador to the said Cantons from King Charles III of Spain. Count Rabutin is arriv'd, with the Army from Transilvania, in the Neighbourhood of Pest; but we have no Account yet of his having joyn'd Count Staremberg.

Falmouth, October 3. On the 1st Instant sail'd the Prince George Pacquet Boat, with a Mail for Lisbon Captain Lucas. The 2d Instant came in her Majesty's Ship the Tartar, Captain Lake Commander, from Torbay. Also came before this Port the Sorlings Frigate, which left the Fleet off Dartmouth. Came in to load Fish for the Streights the Swift Galley for Lisbon. Sail'd the Margaret Galley of this Place for Oporto.

Plymouth, October 4. The 2d sail'd her Majesty's Ships the Orford, York, and Dunkirk, to joyn the Fleet under Sir Cloudsley Shovell. Yesterday sail'd the Valeur, Newport, and Cruiser, to the Westward. Came in the Chearful Mary from Topsham for Oporto. And also the Russel and Ridge Galleys for Leghorne.

Weymouth, October 5. On Wednesday last arriv'd the Robert Transport from St. Malos with 450 exchang'd Prisoners.

Portsmouth, October 3. Last Night came in from the Downes her Majesty's Ship the Nonsuch, with about 80 Sail of Merchant-Ships under her Convoy, some for Portugal, others for Guinea, and others for the Streights. The 2 Men of War bound for Portugal lye ready for Sailing, and the Merchant Ships which were in this Harbour are now all turning out.
